

2015 CCAP

(Cross-Cultural Awareness Programme)

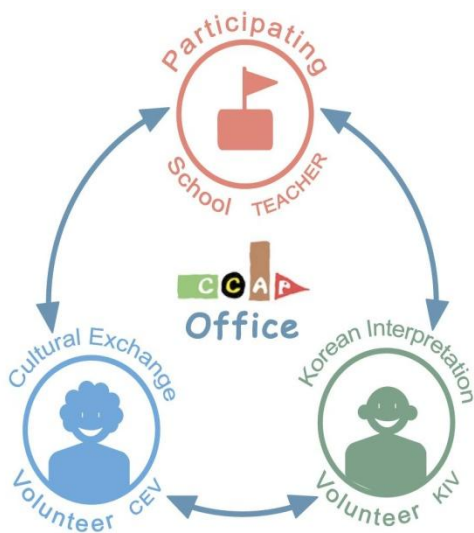

Cultural Exchange Volunteer(CEV) Recruiting

In this programme, foreign residents in Korea are invited to share their culture with Korean youths. They are typically asked to visit schools as a CEV and present their own culture to the Korean students in collaboration with a Korean Interpretation Volunteer (KIV).

1. What are the objectives of this programme?

- To enhance intercultural understanding of Korean Youth
- To provide opportunities for all participants to share their cultural background
- To promote learning to live together in a globalized world
- To create a constructive partnership between Koreans and global citizens by fostering interaction

2. Who are the associated parties of CCAP?

- ① Participating School Teachers
- ② CEVs (Cultural Exchange Volunteers)
- ③ KIVs (Korean Interpretation Volunteers)

3. What are the Main Activities?

Orientation is to provide opportunity to get to know about CCAP with other new participants. In general, Orientation will cover each participant's role, purpose of programme and share practical experience with others.

Regular class is the central part of CCAP activity. One CEV and one KIV visit a pre-arranged Korean School and conduct a culture class. Each school is scheduled to receive one CCAP class per month for six months of the year. (Spring Semester: April-June, Fall Semester: September-November)

Caravan is to provide opportunities to schools who do not have regular contact with foreign cultures due to their geographical locations. The selected school will receive our caravan team composed of CEVs, KIVs and CCAP staff members, who will conduct two classes during the weekend. The programme includes homestay and cultural exchange classes.

Get-Together is planned to promote friendship among CCAP participants, and it is arranged at a different place each time. Attending these event is a good way to meet other participants who are actively involved in CCAP.

CCAP forum/Annual Forum is to provide the evaluation of programme with all CEVs, KIVs and School teacher. It enables to share their experience with others and suggest the better way to lead this programme.
